2014 Congressional Candidate Survey

(Please see explanation on the back for additional information)

1. Will you vote to abolish the double taxation of corporate profits and dividends which disproportionately hurts the elderly? ☐ Yes ☒ No
2. Would you vote to repeal the entirety of ObamaCare, including its tax increases, employer mandates and 100+ new government agencies? ☐ Yes ☒ No
3. Would you vote to end all federally funded education programs and return full control of education to the state and local level? ☐ Yes ☒ No
4. Will you support legislation to abolish the so-called "death tax?" ☐ Yes ☒ No
5. Should each Congress enforce a sunset clause so that regulations issued by federal agencies automatically expire unless public hearings demonstrate by a preponderance of evidence that the regulation is still necessary and cost effective? ☐ Yes ☒ No
6. Will you pledge to vote against any budget that permits overall federal spending to grow more than the rate of inflation? ☐ Yes ☒ No
7. Would you vote against any increases to the debt ceiling, thereby forcing the federal government to stop deficit spending? ☐ Yes ☒ No
8. Would you vote to change the mandate of the Federal Reserve Board so that its only objective is to maintain a constant value for the dollar-- eliminating its vague mandate to manipulate currency to "create" employment? ☐ Yes ☒ No
9. Would you vote to reduce the non-military federal bureaucracy by at least 21%, saving at least $52 billion per year? ☐ Yes ☒ No
10. Would you vote to reform the food stamp program by cutting at least $40 billion over the next five years? ☐ Yes ☒ No
11. Would you vote against the creation of any new tax including an internet sales tax? ☐ Yes ☒ No
12. Will you cosponsor and vote for an amendment to the United States Constitution that would require a balanced budget and that any tax increase be approved by a recorded vote of two-thirds of both houses of Congress unless a formal declaration of war is in effect? ☐ Yes ☒ No
